The young man who assaulted and robbed Emil Haberland, of South Coventry, at the latter's home Saturday last, was arrested late Tuesday night by the police of Providence. Sheriff A. E. Harman was notified of the arrest of the man, who gave his name as Byron Applebee, of Fall River, Mass., Wednesday morning. State police who had been assigned to the case had traced Applebee through Norwich and New London, in their work Monday and the arrest soon followed. When arrested Applebee had the dog belonging to Haberland with him.
Applebee will be returned to South Coventry as extradition papers are to be secured if necessary. Applebee was taken in by Haberland after the young man had told a tale of hard luck and want for lack of work. His brutal assault on Haberland took place at the latter's home two days after the stranger's arrival, amounting to two hundred dollars money and the dog were taken by the thief. Haberland was locked in the house and after great difficulty succeeded in getting free and reaching the home of a neighbor.

Engine Company No. 1 fought a dangerous fire at the home of Mary A. Powell on West Main street, Wednesday morning. Damage to the amount of $15 was done, this being covered by insurance.

All local theatres gave permission for the collection of money for the relief of the starving children in Europe, at their performances Wednesday.

People responded generously and the collection will go to swell the amount in the custody of K. W. Reynolds, local treasurer of the fund.

Trumbull lodge, No. 48, Knights of Pythias, of New London is to hold its annual banquet on Wednesday, February 25th, and an invitation has been extended to Natchaug lodge, No. 23, of this city.
A special trolley car will convey the local knights to the Whaling City that evening. The following committee is in charge: O. D. Leach, chairman, Carl Picknell and Philip Bachard.

The disappearance of Robert Fitzgerald, 26, following the fire at the home of James Mackie in Windham Center, last Thursday evening has led the residents of that town to believe that Fitzgerald could tell something of the origin of the fire if he could be located. Fitzgerald was employed by Horace Alfred Rood of Windham Center and lived at the Mackie home having a room on the upper floor. Last Thursday night Mrs.
Mackie was awakened by a noise and soon after heard someone leave the house. The smell of smoke attracted her attention and upon investigation she found the bedding in Fitzgerald's room blazing. Near the bed was an overturned lantern. Mrs. Mackie rushed across the street and awakened the Rood brothers and the alarm was spread. Mr.

Mackie, who is crippled with rheumatism was removed from the house, and the blaze was soon put out. The fire had eaten a hole through the floor and the woodwork of the room was badly charred.
Neighbors searched for Fitzgerald, but nothing has been seen of him since that time. It is believed that Fitzgerald placed the lighted lantern beneath his bed to keep him warm, and when he discovered that his bed was on fire, he became frightened at what might be done with him, and ran away. No report of the disappearance was made to the police, however. The damage at the building was about $200 and is covered by insurance.

Harry Scheinman, who conducts a boot and shoe repairing shop at the corner of Main and Railroad streets, was before the police court Wednesday morning charged with the illegal sale of fermented cider. A plea of not guilty was entered by the defendant and at the request of Prosecuting Attorney Samuel Harvey, the case was continued until Monday morning next. Scheinman was released upon furnishing a bond of two hundred dollars. An order was issued by Judge Foss for the analysis of the contents of the jar which contained the cider, found at Scheinman's place of business. The liquid will be sent to the Connecticut Agricultural college.

Ernest Morse, charged with intoxication also appeared and his case was continued to Monday next. Morse, it is alleged, purchased his intoxicant at Scheinman's store.

A number of local people took advantage of the free tuberculosis clinic held at the Red Cross rooms Wednesday night, and gained needed examination and information. Dr. Hux E. Campbell of the Norwich State Sanatorium held the clinic.

lows hall, No. 85, Main street.

day that she is improving rapidly, following an illness of two weeks.

that Taylor has purchased meat and Ice dealers in this city state that the ice they will deliver this coming summer will be the best in many years. The open winter having kept the ice entirely free from snow. On most of the ponds near the city the ice is as clear as crystal and is from ten to 12 inches in thickness.

of men engaged in marking the ice at the pumping station and "a" ice will be harvested in a few days. If the weather of the independent ice dealers in the tially filled. Ice dealers in towns out-the thaw during the latter part of last week. The past two days have been cold and the mercury stayed below twenty during most of the day. If the cold weather continues for another week the ice will be in and the people of the city need not worry about a sufficient supply for next summer.

his choice will gratify not only his parishioners but the wide circle of friends he has made since coming to this city about two years ago.

tive Wednesday night, Rev. Mr. Mc-Cready said, "I have come to realize more
